

Marines In Heavy Fighting

Predict More Bloodshed In North Areas

SAIGON (AP) — Two U.S. Marine battalions moving out from Con Thien ran into heavy Communist resistance today a few miles from their sandbagged outpost just below the demilitarized zone.

The renewed fighting and continuation of mortar and artillery assaults promised more bloodshed on the northern front, where the Marines have suffered at least 384 casualties—68 killed, 27 missing and 289 wounded—in three days and claimed 168 enemy killed.

A force of perhaps 3,000 Communists badly mauled Marine units Sunday in heavy fighting near Con Thien. Communist artillery and mortars hammered Con Thien and other outposts Monday, but Marine gunners caught a large North Vietnamese force at the edge of the demilitarized zone and killed 75 of them, the Leathernecks reported.

The Marines reported receiving at least six mortar or artillery attacks Monday night and today on Con Thien, a regimental headquarters at An Hoa, a nearby bivouac and smaller posts within a few miles of Con Thien. Ten Marines were killed and 89 wounded.

Today two Marine battalions moved out of Con Thien to sweep the dirt road leading north into the border zone. One company ran into North Vietnamese infantrymen a mile from Con Thien and almost simultaneously Red artillery began slamming at the second Marine battalion.

Heavy fighting was reported continuing three hours later, but no further details were available.

It appeared that the Communists were exerting pressure to discomfit the United States during the Independence Day celebrations.

Despite the fighting, observations were held by many American units, including a salvo fired by the 11th Armored Cavalry Regiment in honor of America's 50 states.

While fighting along the demilitarized zone overshadowed action elsewhere, there were scattered skirmishes up and down the country.

To Feast Coronation Of A King

NUKU'ALOFA, Tonga (AP) — Joyful Tongans began slaughtering 7,000 pigs today to feast the coronation of their 300-pound, 6-foot-2 King Tupou IV.

The happy islanders sang, laughed and chanted "Tue!" their greatest cry of joy, today after the first coronation since their beloved Queen Salote, Tupou's mother, took the throne in 1918 in this group of 150 coral and volcanic islands in the South Pacific. The sun shone in a nearly cloudless sky and the temperature stayed in the low 80s.

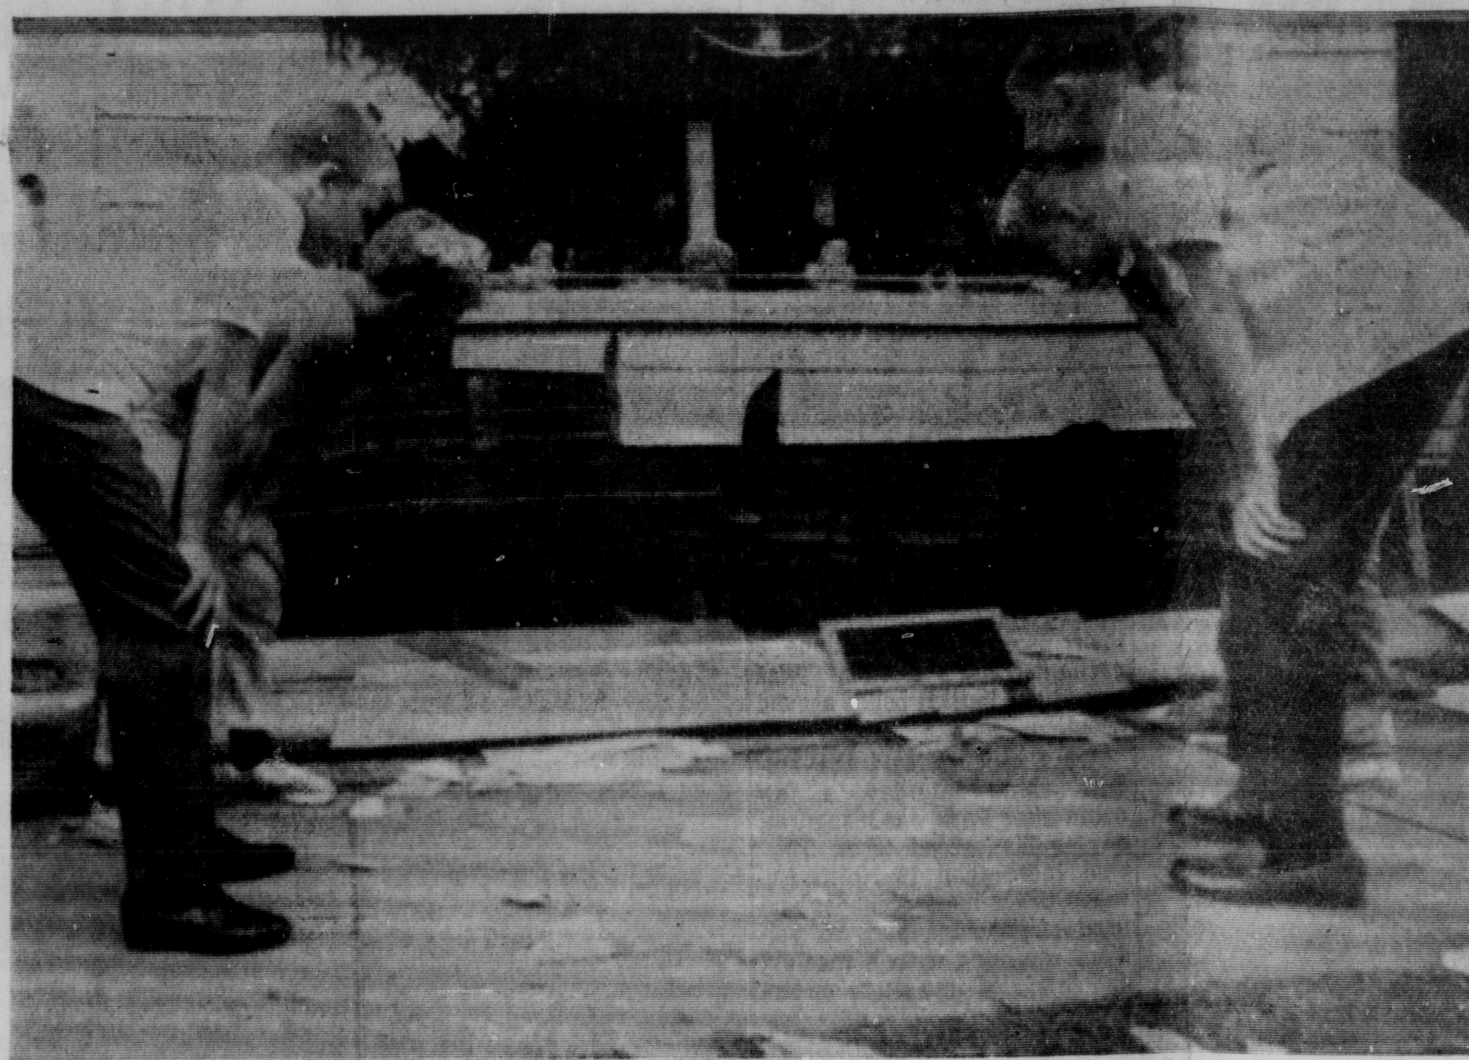

For the coronation before 77 foreign representatives and 140 Tongan nobles, the king and his wife wore brilliant scarlet robes trimmed with ermine and white and green stripes. The king's gold decorations shone brightly on his black suit beneath his robes. He wore a plumed hat.

The queen wore an ankle-length dress of deep ivory beneath her robes.

Thousands of Tongans stood in hushed awe as the royal couple walked 100 yards from their palace along a bark mat to the Wesleyan Chapel Royal where the hour-long ceremony was held. There were gasps at the brilliance of the robes.

The coronation ceremony in this British protectorate generally followed the pattern for British coronations though it was in the Methodist faith which predominates locally. A single cannon boomed and bells rang as the crown was placed on the king's head on his 49th birthday.

The governor of Hawaii, John A. Burns, represented President Johnson at the ceremony.

Royal Yacht Takes Queen, Family Up St. Lawrence

KINGSTON, Ont. (AP) — The royal yacht Britannia carried Queen Elizabeth II and Prince Philip up the St. Lawrence River today after crowds of French Canadians cheered them at the Beauharnois Locks.

The queen and her husband, after their visit to Montreal's Expo 67, gave a formal banquet on board Monday night with lobster tails and chicken for 40 dignitaries as the Britannia sailed from the Cote St. Catherine Lock to the Beauharnois.

Podgorny Ends Visit To Baghdad

MOSCOW (AP) — Soviet President Nikolai V. Podgorny ended an overnight visit to Baghdad today with an understanding with Iraqi President Abdel Rahman Aref on the Middle East situation, Tass reported from Baghdad.

The "mutual understanding" they reached contrasted sharply with the disagreement Podgorny had in neighboring Syria, which he visited for two days before flying to Baghdad.

Syria's militant Socialist regime has talked belligerently about continuing the fight against Israel, and the communist issued at the end of Podgorny's visit said he and the Syrians had reviewed the situation and measures which should be taken.

Podgorny has reportedly urged restraint on his visits in the last two weeks to Egypt, Syria and Iraq, although the Soviet Union is believed to be rearming Egypt and Syria.

Tass, the official Soviet news agency, distributed an Iraqi-Soviet communique saying Podgorny and Aref had talked in a "spirit of friendship and mutual understanding."

Shot By Wife

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Roy Le Johnson, 25, of Kansas City was shot Monday afternoon during an altercation with his estranged wife, Anita Johnson, police said.

Johnson was reported in critical condition at General Hospital with a bullet lodged in his chest.

Police said the shooting occurred at Johnson's home in the 1000 block of Virginia.

To Extradite Moise Tshombe To The Congo

ALGIERS (AP) — The Algerian government newspaper made clear today that the government plans to extradite Moise Tshombe to the Congo to be executed.

African revolutionary justice is preparing "the punishment he deserves" for the Congo's former premier, the newspaper El Moudjahid said.

"Tshombe betrayed Africa and surrendered the Congo and its wealth to the enemies of Africa," said the paper. "He will answer for his crimes."

Tshombe, who was convicted in absentia in the Congo of treason and sentenced to death, was delivered to Algerian authorities Friday in a plane hijacked on a flight between two of the Spanish Balearic islands. He had been living in Spain.

A Congolese minister of state, Bernardin Mulguli-Diaka, is en route to Algiers to discuss the extradition procedure. The Congo and Algeria have no diplomatic relations and no extradition treaty, but the Algerian government is expected to pay no attention to those legal technicalities.

Tshombe was convicted largely on the basis of his unsuccessful attempt to separate his native Katanga Province and its rich copper mines from the Congo.

West Coast Strike Into Second Day

SEATTLE, Wash. (AP) — Picketing was under way in six states and Alberta, Canada, today as a strike by 300 employees of West Coast Airlines entered its second day.

Robert Haskin, master chairman of the striking Air Line Employees Association, said after negotiations had broken off Monday evening that union members would continue to picket ticket offices, terminal buildings and fueling and maintenance facilities at West Coast operations in Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Montana, Utah, California and Calgary, Alta.

Haskin said no further negotiations were scheduled in the dispute, but Ed Altman, vice president for industrial relations for West Coast, said another meeting was to be held today.

The dispute is over wages. Haskin said union representatives presented a revised schedule of wages to the company Monday, but he said Altman "indicated the schedule was unacceptable."

Union officials charged that the company's wage offer was up to two years behind wage schedules of other carriers. Altman has said the company offered "more in every category than paid by any of the country's 13 regional airlines."

No Increase In Tax For City This Year

Mayor Recommends Hike In Fine for Overparking

Sedalia Mayor Ralph Walker told the city council at its regular meeting Monday there would be no recommendation from him or the finance committee for a tax increase this fiscal year, but he did recommend an increase in fines for over-time parking violators.

"Most communities are feeling the same growing pains primarily because assessed tax evaluations have not kept up with increasing property values and tend to become ill-balanced," Walker said. He added that any tax increases that might be considered will have to be voted by the people for a specific purpose.

"Last year's budget was successful because all department heads watched expenditures very closely and this year their same close financial supervision will be necessary, particularly if we are to increase salaries of city employees..."

The new city budget was not complete for presentation to the council Monday. But Walker did say that total revenue for this year "... is expected to be approximately $1,250,000."

In reference to the parking meters, Walker said: "I would recommend that our parking committee continue their analysis of that department and consider raising the over-time parking penalty to 50 cents or perhaps a dollar. . . . The 25 cent fee is too low and tends to make gamblers of some of us at times. . . ."

He added that the first function of parking meters is to keep traffic moving for the convenience of shoppers. "But we must not overlook the $465,000 in revenue bonds still outstanding against the construction of our parking lots."

Walker also recommended that to obtain more efficiency in operation, the jobs of building, electrical and plumbing inspector go to the same man. He recommended Woodrow Garrison. He also urged that the positions of license and restaurant inspector be combined, naming Raymond Whittall for the new post.

Walker assured the council that a schedule of estimated receipts, appropriations and bonded indebtedness will be given each councilman as soon as the schedule is prepared.

Several ordinances were approved without dissent by the council. They included an ordinance stiffening the penalties for violators of the loud and unnecessary noise regulations the city has for motor vehicles. Violators, upon conviction, are subject to a fine of no less than $1 and no more than $100 and a 90-day jail sentence under the new ordinance.

An ordinance was passed setting a general revenue tax rate of $1.00 on each $100 assessed.

Red China To Test ICBM Weapon Soon

HONG KONG (AP) — The Hong Kong Star said today that Red China will test an intercontinental missile designed to carry its H-bomb by the end of this year or early next year.

Quoting its "own sources inside China," the Australian-owned newspaper said problems in the development of a solid fuel propellant for an experimental rocket were solved in April.

De Gaulle's Efforts May Backfire

May Have Gone Too Far With Soviet Accord

PARIS (AP) — The conservative and often Gaullist newspaper Le Figaro said today President Charles de Gaulle might have gone too far in his efforts to get along better with the Soviet Union.

Its comments were made in an editorial marking the U.S. Declaration of Independence.

"This anniversary of a charter to which Frenchmen owe so much is something we want to mention with a particular warmth at a time when the official policy of our country pushes America more and more from France," Le Figaro said.

"It is proclaimed that France is a great nation and that because of this it must have a policy totally independent of everyone, and this is a way of justifying the hostile positions taken in regard to the United States."

"The problem is that the balance is less and less equal between our gestures of independence vis-a-vis America — which on two occasions saved us from disaster — and the Soviet Union, which, even if it did contribute to the victory joined its destiny with that of Germany in 1939. The desire is expressed that it become the privileged associate of France. Can we always count on it? Won't it be subject to new and spectacular developments?"

"Today or tomorrow at the United Nations France will cast its vote with that of the U.S.S.R. to have the international organization approve a resolution unfavorable to Israel."

"This gesture places us once again in the camp which is hostile to our traditional friends, America, Britain and others."

"It threatens to strike a fatal blow to Europe."

"It leads us clearly to pose the question: Where is Gen. de Gaulle taking us? By what route? And why this leap toward adventure?"

Violence Flares In Cincinnati

CINCINNATI (AP) — Racial violence flared again late Monday night and early today in Cincinnati's predominantly Negro Avondale area, but police reported quiet as the daylight hours came.

There were sporadic outbreaks of rock throwing, looting and fires during the outbreak, and police read the riot act in the area about 1 a.m. to give them added powers to quell the disturbances.

There were 26 fire alarms during the outbreaks, the police arrested about a dozen persons. They reported most of the incidents apparently involved juveniles and young men.

During the time of the disturbances, a fire wrecked much of the Cincinnati Sash & Door Co., a short distance north of the Avondale area, and Fire Chief Bert Lugannani estimated the loss at a million dollars.

Police and firemen did not immediately connect the fire with the racial disturbances, but Asst. Fire Chief Robert Wedig said that "the fire definitely is arson."

Negroes reported a number of Negroes were seen leaving the area shortly before the fire was discovered.

Skirmishes Continued During Visit

SEOUL, South Korea (AP) — North Koreans killed seven South Korean soldiers and wounded five from ambush and 10 Communists were killed in other clashes, while U.S. Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey and other foreign leaders were in the country for the inauguration of President Chung Hee Park, the army said today.

Reports of the attacks in and below the demilitarized zone appeared to have been withheld while the foreign visitors were in Seoul, about 50 miles to the southwest.

As Humphrey paid his farewell call on Park today a few hours before leaving for the United States, thousands of South Korean students resumed their protest that the June 8 parliamentary election was rigged and battled police around Seoul.

Army officials said the ambush came Saturday, a few hours after Park was inaugurated for his second term. They said more than 10 North Koreans threw hand grenades and fired submachine guns at soldiers returning from a meeting and then fled into dense underbrush.

The incident brought to 80 the number of South Koreans and Americans killed in border clashes since just before President Johnson's state visit to Korea last October.

Humphrey's visit included five days of talks with Asian leaders in which he called on their governments to pay a greater share of the cost of economic and social aid to South Vietnam. He was said to have stressed that point strongly in talks Saturday with Japanese Prime Minister Eisaku Sato.

Ann Landers

Dear Ann Landers: Our problem is a 15-year-old son. Ronnie gives away everything he gets his hands on. This is not a recent habit. He has been doing it ever since he was a small child.

My first recollection of his "generosity" was when I spent the whole day baking for a church bazaar and the next morning Ronnie gave all the baked goods to the kids in the neighborhood.

He has given away my new riding boots, his father's yard equipment and his own chemistry set. A few weeks ago he said he was nearly out of shirts. I bought him a half dozen new shirts in January. I'm sure he gave his shirts to some friend.

I have considered giving away his stereo and camera to teach him a lesson and get him out of the habit. What do you think of the idea, Ann? Would it work?—NOTHING LEFT

Dear Nothing: Don't do it. It never does any good to treat the symptom and ignore the problem. The boy's gift-giving compulsion is evidence that he needs to feel loved. Giving usually produces praise and warm comments. This is why the boy started to play Santa Claus at an early age and has kept it up. Take the hint and give him what he really needs.

Dear Ann Landers: There is a lot to be said for stricter gun laws. If I had had a gun in the house last Sunday, I think I would have shot my mother-in-law. For the 100th time she said to me, "Why don't you try one more time, Edith? The next one has to be a girl."

I would like nothing better than to have a girl, Ann, but I am 36 years old and I don't want a sixth boy.

My husband just sits there looking underprivileged. He never opens his mouth to say a word in my behalf. If someone would give me a guarantee that my next baby would be a girl, I would go ahead. But in the absence of a guarantee, I am plenty satisfied with things as they are.

Please tell me how I can get my mother-in-law off my back.—HECKLED

Dear Heck: Smile sweetly and pretend you have a dead battery in your hearing aid.

Dear Ann Landers: I am a grandmother who wants some advice. For the past six years I have sent my grandchildren cards with cash enclosed for all occasions — birthdays, Christmas and Easter. I have yet to receive an acknowledgment from any of them.

Two of my grandchildren are not old enough to write, but their mother is. Would it be mean of me to send only cards from now on, minus the cash? Thank you for your help.—PHILADELPHIA GRAM

Dear Gram: I feel sorry for children whose mother has failed to teach them the fundamentals of good manners.

If you did not write or telephone to learn if the cards and money were received, you should have done so. I suggest that you give them one more round. If you receive no acknowledgment, make a point of it — not to be punitive, but to teach the children good manners. If, after being told, they still do not acknowledge your gifts, stop sending them.

Shriver In Battle For OEC's Life

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sargent Shriver is battling Congress for the life of his command post—the Office of Economic Opportunity—and the usually optimistic antipoverty director concedes the future looks bleak.

"There might be no war on poverty by the time we're through," Shriver said recently, estimating the odds are 60 to 40 against passage of the Johnson administration's antipoverty legislation now before Congress.

Shriver's primary concerns are money and a Republican effort to dismantle the OEO and move its programs to such established departments as Labor and Health, Education and Welfare.

Johnson has requested $2.06 billion for the OEO for fiscal 1968, compared with the $1.6 billion appropriated in fiscal 1967. Shriver believes an appropriation of $1.7 billion to $2 billion might be wrung from Congress.

Some congressmen believe the appropriation will be the same as fiscal 1967.

The difference between what Congress authorizes in spending and what it actually appropriates can spell the life or death of his program, says Shriver.

He notes, for instance, that Congress authorized $1.75 billion for the antipoverty agency last year and then appropriated $150 million less, forcing sharp cutbacks in major programs.

With rising prices, says Shriver, just getting the same amount of money doesn't mean standing still, it means dropping back.

In June appearances before the House and Senate, and in many speeches, Shriver and his top aides said poverty can be defeated and the OEO should remain the primary coordinating force. They said there is a national consensus against dismantling OEO.

Shriver told Congress the basic question is: "Will the agency you brought into being to serve the poor, to speak for the poor, to marshal America's resources on behalf of the poor, continue to do the job you set for it?"

If Republicans—especially those in the House—have their way, the OEO won't, despite the long list of organizations and public and private citizens backing the agency.

The GOP "Opportunity Crusade," introduced by Reps. Albert A. Quie of Minnesota and Charles E. Goodell of New York, would dismantle the OEO by distributing its programs among other agencies.

It would replace the OEO with a three-man council of economic opportunity advisers in the White House.

Quie says the shift would make the antipoverty program more effective.

NORTH VIETNAM — The Xom Ca Trang highway, the major infiltration route for North Vietnamese supplies and troops movements for Communist forces fighting in South Vietnam, was photographed in June by a U.S. Air Force reconnaissance jet near the Mu Gia Pass, which runs between Laos and North Vietnam. Constructing a maze of roads and fords such as this requires a large force of North Vietnamese laborers working around the clock trying to maintain supply lines to the Communists in the South. U.S. troops smashed a 2,500-man North Vietnamese force trying to invade South Vietnam, military sources said. (UPI)

Romney Bids For Nomination

LANSING, Mich. (AP) — Michigan Gov. George Romney, after a major victory at home, returned today to his courtship of the Republican presidential nomination.

With a long-sought state income tax a reality, Romney planned to leave for a four-day stay at the Lake Winnepesaukee, N.H., summer home of J. Willard Marriott, a long-time friend and political backer.

Billed as a trip combining "work and rest," the visit is expected to include meetings with presidential backers and New Hampshire GOP leaders to map strategy for the state's 1968 primary—the nation's first.

Leonard Hall, head of the Romney-for-president movement who was in Lansing last week for a brief meeting with Romney, described the trip as "strictly a New Hampshire affair."

Upon returning to Michigan, Romney will head for his summer home on Mackinac Island where he will spend most of the month conferring with his staff. Romney backers and national political figures.

The conferences will iron out Romney policies on major foreign and domestic issues which are expected to be released in the form of magazine articles and key position statements.

Romney had interrupted his speaking engagements around the country to stay in Lansing and work for a fiscal reform program that was passed by the Michigan Legislature Saturday. It is based on individual and corporate income taxes.

Romney supporters say its passage will improve his image around the country.

JERUSALEM (AP) — Entertainer Danny Kaye joined hundreds of Orthodox Jews Monday in a pilgrimage to the Wailing Wall.

Kaye, wearing the corduroy trousers, striped shirt and battered hat in which he had flown from New York, asked to be driven to Old Jerusalem and the Wailing Wall less than two hours after arriving in Israel.

He bowed at the ancient stones of the temple destroyed by the Romans in the year 70. In accordance with Jewish custom, he touched the wall and said a brief prayer of thanksgiving.

Kaye came to Israel to entertain at army camps, hospitals, children's homes and border settlements.

Outcomes Of Your Marriages

Divorce rates are between two and four times greater among young marriages (under 19) than among marriages begun by persons in their twenties.

According to studies, persons who married in their teens generally rates their marriages as being less satisfactory than persons who married later in life. Approximately one-third to over one-half of young husbands and wives have reported they regretted they married when they did.

However, studies also bear out that not all young marriages are doomed to failure or unhappiness. There are many successful and competent youthful marriages.

Summer Youth Programs

Approximately 165 elementary school age boys and girls are taking part in summer programs sponsored and carried out by the Pettis County University Extension Center. The youth projects involved are as follows: Bicycle Safety, sewing, foods, woodwork and electricity.

High Winds Strike In Plains Area

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Winds of up to 100 miles an hour, tornadoes, hail and severe thundershowers tore through the southern Plains Monday night.

Nearly $500,000 damage was caused by winds of between 90 and 100 miles an hour in the area around Liberal in southwestern Kansas.

The winds accompanied a severe thunderstorm which spawned a tornado 18 miles north of Liberal and pummeled Garden City, Kan., with hail. Hail also pelted Scott City, Kan.

The violent weather also pushed into the Texas Panhandle. Pampa, Tex., about 50 miles northeast of Amarillo, was buffeted by 75-mile-an-hour winds and torrential rains.

Perrytown, Tex., near the Oklahoma border was hit by several tornadoes Monday evening and considerable damage was reported.

A tornado hit the small town of Mobeetie, 85 miles northeast of Amarillo Monday night, destroyed a bank building and severely damaged several other structures.

Power and telephone communications were cut off in the town and nearby points for several hours after the twister struck.

Thunderstorms lingered early today along the Gulf Coast and in the Rockies with some showers also reported in the west-central Plains and the Ohio Valley.

Electrical storms in western Idaho and eastern Oregon Monday night started nearly a score of small forest fires.

The remainder of the nation enjoyed clear weather on the Fourth of July morning but temperatures were in the 40s in the north-central Canadian border states and unseasonably cool air spread south and eastward through the Midwest.

Heroism Medal For Pettis Countian

Specialist Fourth Class Melvin E. Phillips of Pettis County has received the Army Commendation Medal for heroism during action in Vietnam.

The certificate of commendation stated that Phillips distinguished himself by heroic actions on March 21, 1967, during a Viet Cong attack against his battalion area. It states that Phillips continued to accomplish his mission of insuring that the battery radios were kept operational at all times until the enemy was driven back from the perimeter.

Phillips is assigned to the 2nd Battalion, 77th Artillery, 4th Infantry Division. Phillips' wife, Susan, resides with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Alexander, Route 4. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dewitt Phillips, Houstonia.

1917 High School Class Reunion Set

The class of 1917 of the old Sedalia High School will hold its 50th anniversary reunion Sept. 8 and 9. The anniversary is expected to attract about 60 or more old class members out of the class of 102.

Walter "Walt" Rissler and Paul Read, class members, began arranging for the anniversary several months ago with the class president, Clay Harned, and George E. Dugan, who was secretary.

Dugan reported the reunion may become a "joint venture" with the class of 1916, which would have held their 50th anniversary a year ago.

The reunion will be held at the Holiday Inn. Among the plans is a visit to the old school, which is now the Central Business College, and also to Smith-Cotton high school, which was built in 1925.

Girl Scout Camp Day Bus Schedule

The bus schedule for transportation to Girl Scout Day Camp at Sacajawea has been recently set up by Mrs. Howard Whitaker, Day Camp director.

The council approved authority for Mayor Walker to enter into a contract agreement with the Highway Commission for a school crossing on Highway 750, formerly North Osage, at Johnson.

It was voted to approve an ordinance repealing a previous stipulation that the plumbing inspector be a plumber. Under the new ordinance, the qualifications read merely that the inspector not be involved with commercial plumbing concern.

The council also approved two ordinances setting new speed regulations on two Sedalia streets. The first establishes a 40 mile an hour speed limit on Highway 750, north from Henry to the north city limits.

The second ordinance set speed limits on West Main, from Ohio to Prospect at 20 miles an hour; from Prospect to Park at 30 miles an hour; and from Park to the west city limits at 40 miles an hour. The last two sections of roadway are now governed by lower speed limits.

The council also gave Mayor Walker authority to appeal for a federal grant for the south-west sewage treatment plant. It voted to establish a six-member Board of Park Commissioners and extend their terms from two to four years, repealing a previous ordinance.

Only one ordinance brought objections from the audience. As approved, the ordinance would limit trucks using the proposed northeast landfill, or new city dump, to those owned by the city or meeting city specifications.

Trucks not owned by the city would have to be certified and would then be subject to inspection every 30 days. If they failed to meet city specifications, they would lose their right to use the new landfill, near Beaman. This brought comment from Billy Bozarth, who said he is one of several Sedalians who makes his living hauling trash away from business places in the city. Bozarth presented a petition to the council for consideration.

Mayor Walker said, "This ordinance was not drawn to put people out of business, but the city has no obligation to provide a city landfill or dump for private haulers. However, we will take the petition into consideration."

Councilmen approved a request from Councilman James Schumaker to allow a dental clinic, which will be free of charge to the public, to use two parking spaces on the north side of the Pettis County Courthouse without charge.

A public housing petition, containing about 500 names, was presented to the city council by Councilman Ray Simons of the Third Ward. Simons, who said after the council meeting the petition had been given to him simply for presentation, apparently did not have any personal interest in the subject of the petition.

The council was asked by the petitioners to put the public housing question up for a vote by the people, either at the next general election or a special election, before taking action on establishing a public housing authority.

Mayor Walker replied that due to "work on budget matters, we have not discussed public housing for about three weeks, but we acknowledge receipt of the petition."

In final action, the council adopted a resolution for curbing and guttering on Quincy between 14th and 16th; denied a request by Carl W. Hammerly for a five percent beer license; and approved a five percent beer license to Krogers.

Receipts from various departments for June totaled $77,894.96. City Clerk Ralph Dedrick told the council. The largest amounts of revenue collected were $72,558.53 by City Collector Opal Hugelman and $4,722 from police fines.

Department bills approved for payment: general and administrative, $1,900.84; airport, $767.80; fire, $186.51; police, $2,005.20; street and alley, $1,490.25; sanitation, $58.22; sewer, $964.41; public buildings and grounds, $156.40; industrial development, $1,257.57; lights and water, $15.40; parking, $56.46. Total bills approved for payment came to $146,576.87, including

Mansfield's Funeral Draws Unwanted Crowd

PEN ARGYL, Pa. (AP) — Jayne Mansfield's burial Monday, like her life as a glamorous sex symbol, attracted a large audience of spectators. In this case the audience was unwanted.

Crowds of nearly 1,000 gathered in front of the Pullis Funeral Home and at the Fairview Cemetery two miles away, where Miss Mansfield, 34, was buried with Methodist rites in this small town where she grew up.

"We just wanted a little privacy," said Mickey Hargitay, her second husband. "Why couldn't the people have left us to weep in peace?"

Hargitay, and Miss Mansfield's mother, Mrs. Harry Peers of Dallas, Tex., were among the group who attended the brief services in the chapel of the funeral home and at the gravesite.

Spectators broke through police lines and ran across grass-covered graves to take pictures of the bronze casket with its blanket of pink roses.

The actress was killed last Thursday in a car-truck collision at New Orleans. A lawyer, Samuel Brody, 40, and chauffeur Ronald Harrison, 20, also were killed.

Her three children by Hargitay—Marie, 3, Zoltan, 6, and Miklos Jr., 8—were injured but not critically.

MaNamara Influence On Tax Increase

WASHINGTON (AP) — Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara's upcoming trip to Vietnam could play a key role in determining the amount of taxes to be paid by Americans this year and next.

Government sources said today McNamara's post-trip report will weigh heavily with the administration in setting the size of the surcharge to be formally requested by President Johnson.

Johnson proposed a 6 per cent surcharge on corporate and individual income taxes to take effect July 1.

No legislation has been sent to Congress yet but a tax message with only the numbers missing reportedly is ready to go. McNamara probably will leave for Vietnam late this week.

Although government officials hesitate to describe their tax position as "beyond the point of no return," they don't see any possibility now of backtracking on an increase this year—barring unforeseen economic upheavals.

But the size of the request still is open. Chairman Gardner Ackley of the President's Council of Economic Advisers said last week it won't be less than 6 per cent.

One alternative, and there reportedly are many still being considered, would call for different surcharges—8 per cent on individual taxes and 12 per cent on corporate taxes with an effective date of next Jan. 1.

Another alternative under study is for a 6 per cent surtax on both individuals and corporations to take effect Oct. 1 or Jan. 1, but retroactive to July 1, the date the tax originally was scheduled to take effect.

A third idea under discussion calls for sending a surcharge bill to Congress accompanied by a separate tax reform bill.

Rep. Henry Reuss, D-Wis., a member of the Senate-House Economic Committee, has urged the administration to push for tax reform before seeking a tax increase.

McNamara's trip presumably will give the administration a better idea of present and future Vietnam war needs and how much it will take to finance them. Some congressional sources foresee an escalation of troop strength costing $5 billion beyond the $22.4 billion included for Vietnam in the President's budget for the new fiscal year.

Reds Answer US Festival Of Films

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet answer to the glamor of world film festivals, a spectacle that puts puritanism, politics and propaganda ahead of pulchritude, playboys and parties, is on this week.

Moscow's fifth International Film Festival July 5-20 again promises political fireworks. Prize awards in the past have pitted Soviet jurors, seeking to honor Soviet films with top awards, against foreign jurors demanding recognition for artistic achievements from abroad.

Moves to honor controversial films from the West have confronted deadly serious Soviet officials with key dilemmas.

Refusal to honor such films hurts efforts to present a liberal image abroad and dampens the prestige of the Moscow festival. But the Soviets also fear that honoring such films adds pressure for relaxation of controls on the arts here, permitting production of critical films.

They want the prestige of an international film festival awarded bestow on productions of the only Soviet-approved art school, "socialist realism."

The American film "Who is Afraid of Virginia Woolf?" will be shown outside the competition to an invitation-only audience of Soviet film workers. The public won't see it.

The Soviets always invite scores of the world's stars to attend but few appear, partly because the scheduled showing of their films is worked out only at the last minute.

This time only Leslie Caron and French actor Robert Hossein, both jury members, are listed as sure to attend.

Among Americans, George Hamilton, Warren Beatty, Shirley MacLaine, Shirley Temple and Jack Palance are tentatively listed as coming.

Russian-born composer Dmitri Tiomkin—"High Noon"—is on the 15-member jury. It has a majority of eight Communist

He's a Lab Expert at 10

It isn't every day that a certified laboratory technician approaches a group of U.S. senators on all fours and wags his tail at them in friendly greeting.

But Straybourne Betts did.

Straybourne Betts is, of course, distinctly different from your average certified laboratory technician.

For one thing, he is only 10 years old. For another, he happens to be a dog.

How come a dog is a certified laboratory technician?

That's what Sen. Philip Hart of Michigan wanted to know. So did Sen. Lister Hill of Alabama, who with Sen. Hart is sponsoring a bill to straighten out what they regard as imperfections in the present system of certifying medical technologists and enforcing proper laboratory controls.

Now, Straybourne Betts has never met — and undoubtedly will never be able to meet — standards set by the American Medical Association. Nevertheless, he has been listed for four years in the International Registry of Independent Medical Technologists of Enid, Okla., and the Registry of Medical Technologists International of St. Louis Mo.

What other 10-year-old brown mongrel dog can make that statement?

Hart reasoned that if his senatorial colleagues could meet certified laboratory technician Straybourne first-paw, they could see for themselves that something was wrong.

Straybourne Betts, Hart explained, had been enrolled in the registries by mail by a professional technologist to show how easy it is to be certified.

The senators were obviously intrigued. The consensus seemed to be that Straybourne Betts had been a dog-goned good witness.

Straybourne Betts himself volunteered no comment. He merely wagged his tail in certified contentment — and undoubtedly reflected that at least one dog had, indeed, had his day.

Lawn Jockeys, Arise!

Talk about the Central Intelligence Agency secretly subsidizing youth groups, labor unions and foundations. Something far more alarming has been brought to light.

According to the Wall Street Journal, a major lawn care products company has been subsidizing model lawns in neighborhoods around the country. The purpose, the story hints, is to shame people into improving their lawns — to sow seeds of dissatisfaction, as it were — and thereby possibly sell more fertilizer, weed-killer and whatnot.

The company retorts that it is doing no such thing. Its lawns are merely test plots for new products.

This is a matter that strikes at the security of every homeowner—at the domestic tranquility of the Republic itself. It demands a full-scale congressional investigation to get at the truth. It is a question of principle and we will settle for nothing less.

Unless, of course, we were offered a subsidy for our own sickly looking lawn.

Boston Traveler Approaches Demise

By DREW PEARSON AND JACK ANDERSON

WASHINGTON — When the Founding Fathers proclaimed the Declaration of Independence 191 years ago today, they were goaded and encouraged by small newspapers published surreptitiously in the basements of Philadelphia and Boston.

From these courageous one-sheet affairs, distributed by hand, there sprang the freedom of the press now guaranteed by the Constitution.

Four days hence in Boston, one of the early newspapers of the nation, the Boston Traveler, will cease publication after 142 years. Its demise is caused by several factors — high costs, the competition of TV advertising, but also perhaps by the fact that the Traveler abandoned the example set by the crusading little papers which helped win our independence.

Recently this column reported that veteran crime reporter Hank Messick was dropped from the staff of the Traveler and its associate, the Boston Herald, after he began inquiring into links between the underworld and Joseph Linsey, a Herald-Traveler stockholder.

Publisher George Akerson denied this, contending that Messick never had been hired, simply came to Boston for a try-out.

However, three other members of the investigative team — Nicholas Cage, John Salin and James Savage — who continued to work for the Herald-Traveler after Messick's departure, have now submitted their resignations.

Immediately after Messick was dropped, they wrote this joint letter, May 3, to Akerson:

"We have learned today of Mr. Hank Messick's dismissal as an employee investigating organized crime in greater Boston for the Herald-Traveler Corporation. . .

"In addition, we are told that the direction of the investigation of organized crime is going to change. All this is certain to raise doubts in the minds of many about the integrity of the Herald-Traveler in general and the Research Bureau in particular. Certainly, many doubts have been raised in our minds."

The Mafia In Boston

The trio continued their investigative reporting for the next few weeks, during which Savage submitted a story which quoted Henry Petersen, Chief of the Justice Department's organized crime section, as saying: "Boston is a priority area for us."

Looking Backward

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Eleven members of the International Brotherhood of Boilermakers, Local 113, who work at night at the Missouri Pacific shops, surprised a Pettis county farmer by appearing in his oats field about 8 o'clock in the morning, telling him they were ready to go to work. The farmer is Emmett Bohon, southeast of Sedalia, who could not get help. The boilermakers who took no pay or dinner were: Ernest Carver, Clyde Carver, Bill Dunlap, Harold Paull, Tom Yeager, Minter Ringen, Ira Richards, Fred Yonce, L. C. Sprinkles, Ward Abney and Lee Steele.

Petersen identified Raymond L. S. Patriarca as the kingpin of Mafia operations in New England, living in Providence, R. I., and operating in Boston through Gennaro Angilio.

"I think we're closer to Boston's Mafia figures now than we have been in six years," Savage quoted Petersen as saying.

The Herald-Traveler refused to print Savage's story, though the papers later gave a front-page splash to FBI revelations identifying Patriarca as the crime lord of New England.

The FBI also linked Patriarca to the Berkshire Downs race track, which is run by B. A. Dario.

Messick, during his brief Boston stint, had begun an investigation into Joseph Linsey's ties with Dario. The two are partners in a Ford dealership.

Messick also had been asking questions about "Mickey the Wise Guy" Rocco, who is on Linsey's payroll. Rocco was identified as a member of the Boston Cosa Nostra at a 1963 Senate hearing. Boston police officials had testified that he controlled gaming "in one section of Boston."

Rocco's police record showed 32 arrests—two of them for alleged murder. Yet he was on Linsey's payroll in the liquor business and his Ford dealership.

Akerson told this column, however, that he had checked with the Boston police, who had claimed Rocco was now inactive. The publisher also said that Linsey owned less than half of one per cent interest in the Herald-Traveler and had a good reputation in the community. Linsey, when contacted by this column, denied that he owned any Herald-Traveler stock. He refused to talk about his association with Dario and Rocco. The Boston Traveler ceases publication this week.

Lethargic Public

One of the nation's most forthright broadcasters, Edward P. Morgan, gave his last broadcast for the AFL-CIO the other night with this advice to the American people:

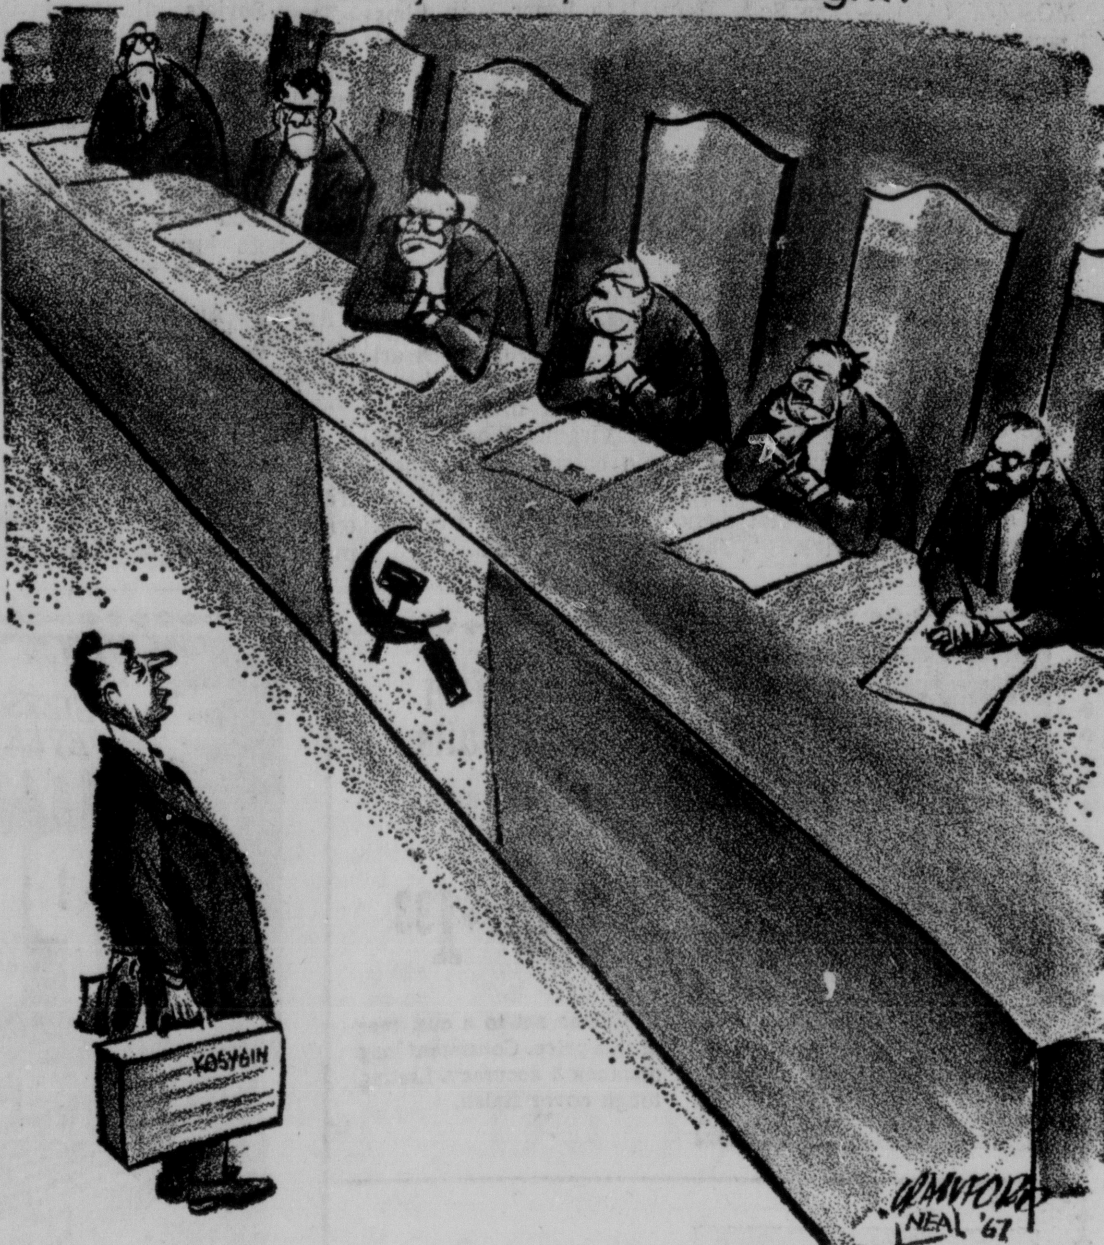

"Instead of trying to solve our problems we organize hate groups to blame the other fellow. Or we flee to the beaches of frantile leisure only to be sunburned by the guilt of our wanton negligence. There is no miracle drug or magic ointment to cure or quiet this situation. But there is an instrument of devastating effectiveness which we have only superficially, often hypocritically, employed. It is called the power of the press.

"Let's face it. We in the trade use this power more frequently to fix a traffic ticket or get a ticket to a ball game than to keep the doors of an open society open and swinging, by encouraging honest controversy or crusading for truth and justice. There is enough wrong in the republic to merit a full-scale expose daily, if not every hour on the hour.

"But newspapers run prize contests to lure readers or keep the ones they have. Broadcasting is driving thoughtful citizens away in droves by fertilizing the wastelands of the airwaves with the manure of utter mediocrity. The situation is so bad the commercials, even in their saturation, are often better than tgrams they support.

"In our obedience before the altar of profit and free enterprise we have let the lust for material things get the better of us. Nothing is so important as people. But instead of the sacred dignity of the individual human being, too many of us worship dividends and private property more."

"—On the Brighter Side, Traffic on the New Jersey Turnpike was Light!"

Will Name 1968 Miss Missouri

SPRINGFIELD, Mo. (AP) — Miss Missouri for 1968 will be chosen here later this week from among 22 girls competing for the honor.

The 1968 Miss Missouri Pageant opens Wednesday and will be climaxed by selection of the state's queen Saturday night.

Not only will the winner reign as Miss Missouri, but she will represent the state in the Miss America contest at Atlantic City later this year.

Rehearsals will begin Wednesday morning. Later they will be divided into two groups. Preliminary competition for the first group in talent, swim wear and evening gowns will be Thursday evening. The second group will compete in the preliminaries Friday.

Final competition will be held Friday evening with the field being reduced to 10 contestants and later to five.

All five finalists will receive trophies.

Miss Missouri will receive a $1,000 scholarship, a $500 wardrobe, an all-expense trip to Atlantic City and the use of a new car for a year. The first runnerup will receive a $500 scholarship; the second runnerup, $250; third runnerup, $150 and fourth runnerup, $100.

The judges, all of whom have had experience in other state contests, will come here from Florida, Louisiana, North Carolina and Nebraska.

The pageant is being presented by the Springfield Junior Chamber of Commerce.

The candidates include:

Ronnie J. Brunk, St. Louis; Miss Lake of the Ozarks; Dawn Williams, Branson, Miss Tri-Lakes; Jaretta Randall, Miss Cabool; Phyllis Beggs, Miss South Kansas City; Judy Mullins, Miss Cape Girardeau; Kathleen Dyer, Bowling Green, Miss Salt River; Pamela Price, Miss Sedalia.

Janice Sprague, Miss Blue Springs; Janice Seals, Miss Warrensburg; Janet Musick, Springfield, Miss Greene County; Patricia Pryor, Tusculumia, Miss University of Missouri, Independent; Brenda Burns, Miss Howell County.

Patricia Hollenbeck, Miss Maryville; Janet Rash, Miss Kansas City Plaza; Barbara

Hays, Miss Lee's Summit; Debbie Hansbrough, Miss Hannibal; Valeire Kistler, Miss Raytown; Denise Rinehart, Miss Neosho; Nancy Kinnamon, Miss Kansas City; and Christine Booth, Lake Forest, Ill., Miss University of Missouri.

Begin Work Under New Federal Act

WASHINGTON (AP) — Federal agencies begin working Tuesday under a new Freedom of Information Act but few of them expect important changes in the way they disclose public records.

Despite this consensus among administrators, congressional supporters of the law say they will make sure it is observed.

The man who sponsored the measure in the House—Rep. John Moss, D-Calif.—says the final verdict on the law's effectiveness will be handed down by John Q. Public.

Sen. Edward V. Long, D-Mo., Senate sponsor of the bill, said he is "sure that there are bureaucrats who are going to hang on to their secrecy until the bitter end."

But, Long added, "we've worked far too long and hard on this law to see it mangled by federal red tape."

One agency official, questioned in an Associated Press survey to see how the new law will change procedures, replied: "I don't see three cents worth of difference."

Several other administrators said they think the law is confusing and open to different interpretations. Atty. Gen. Ramsey Clark said "definitive answers may have to await court rulings."

The law provides that any citizen may see any government document in the files—but lists nine categories of materials which are exempt from this stipulation. These range from defense secrets to inter-agency memos to files which, if made public, would invade an individual's privacy.

Martyred Bishop

By CYRENE DEAR

WASHINGTON, D. C. — The bright red book jacket, with its Chinese-type tower and the cross on the top, intrigues one to read "The Pagoda and the Cross," written by John F. Donovan, M. M. and published by Charles Scribner's Sons. The book is biographical study of the martyred Bishop Ford of Maryknoll. It is a historic missionary study, not only of dedicated Catholic priests, but also of the hardships of all missionaries and their struggles in China where they were mistreated by the Communists who regard all foreigners as spies and intruders.

Young Francis Ford opposed the wishes of his father who wanted him to take over the publishing of "The Irish World" in Brooklyn, New York. At an early age he was inspired by a visiting European missionary who came to preach in Brooklyn. Francis confided to his mother that he too wanted to be a missionary. In 1908 there was no Catholic missionary society in the United States, and only a handful of American priests engaged in overseas missions. Maryknoll was established in 1911 as the Catholic Foreign Mission Society of America. Francis Ford became its first aspirant. Upon completing his studies young Ford sailed for China with three other missionaries in 1918.

The young priests established primitive missions in the area around Yuengking, and with the help of Chinese converts, additional priests and sisters, their work spread throughout the province of Kwantung. A seminary was built in Kaying in 1934. By 1935 Francis Xavier Ford was consecrated as Bishop of See City of Kaying. It did not detract from the dignity of his high office to share his private residence with Chinese students. While the seeds of Bishop Generalissimo Chiang Chi Chaik moved the national government of China to Taiwan. After a brief furlough in the United States, Bishop Ford returned to China full of apprehension for his mission there. He sensed the new revolution there to be one against an unjust ruler. The Maryknollers were urged to stay at their posts and not desert their people in a time of crisis. By 1949 the Communists were in command.

Bishop Ford and one of the Sisters were imprisoned as spies and nationalist sympathizers. At a farcial trial the Bishop made it clear, as St. Paul before Agrippa did, that he had committed no crime. "I speak the words of truth. . . . He proclaimed his love of the Chinese people and his willingness to suffer, even to die, to show that love."

The Bishop who was the missionary youth from Brooklyn died on February 21, 1952, a true martyr.

RIOT AFTERMATH or accident victim? Not at all. New York City officials admit that five to six people die every day on the Bowery in their city, simply from starvation or exposure. Bowery priest Father Tom Murphy, shown here with a skid row derelict, says he would put the figure "around 20 or 30." Scurrying Business For Ant-Hunter

BELL GARDENS, Calif. (AP) — For ant-hunter Ken Gidney business is looking down.

On his hands and knees, clutching a broom straw and coffee can, Gidney captures ants for a wholesale company that supplies ant farms, an educational toy for inquisitive children, eager biology students and the idle curious.

Gidney's rewards aren't penny-ante. He gets a penny an ant as a professional. Sometimes his intake reaches $3,000 a week when the ants are running strong.

Gidney, 46, who lives with his wife and nine children in Bell Gardens, a Los Angeles suburb, got the job by answering a newspaper ad.

"I go all over," he says with a touch of bravado. "Saugus, Newhall, Ontario, Pomona, Lancaster, Palm Springs—anywhere I'm likely to find ants."

"I usually have some of my children and some assistants along. We spot an ant hill, get out, and start digging with shovels. And then we fetch our ants onto our straws."

Twice a week, Gidney delivers sacks of ants—15 to 35 in each polyethylene vial—to his employer.

The ant hunter must be selective, catching only the sterile females, called pognomyrex, or harvesters. These are the worker ants that perform busily in the dirt-filled, transparent plastic ant farms.

Gidney can't keep all of his ants own on the farm, however. Every two months, 4,000 are mailed to Washington, D.C.

"We send them to the Walter Reed Army Institute for research," says Gidney's employer. "It's all done by government contract. We get $100 per shipment. We assume the ants are used in space research, but we aren't about to ask any questions."

Sedalia Wins Fifth Game In A Row

The Sedalia Lions B. J. won Sunday night over Columbia in a wild scoring game. They outlasted the Columbia team by a score of 17 to 10. Jim Johnson who started the game for the Lions left after five and two-third innings with the bases loaded. Steve Lewis came on to retire the side after giving up a double that scored two more and the last runs.

The Lions pounded two Columbia pitchers for 19 hits and 17 runs. They scored in every inning and poured it on in the fifth for eight runs. Every man hit safely in the game. Before leaving the game Jim Johnson got 2 hits, both coming in the fifth inning. Highlight of the game was a towering home run in the seventh inning by Leon Hall. The ball cleared the fence in left center field with plenty of room to spare.

The Lions are now alone in first place in the Central Missouri Ban Johnson League. However the big test comes on Thursday night when they travel to Jefferson City for a night game. Jefferson City is one-half game behind and have played one game less than the Lions. On the last meeting Jefferson City beat the Lions three to one. Steve Beck pitched a no-hitter against them. The Lions seemed to have found the range with the bats in the last few games though so the story could be different this time.

Chicago Cubs swinging their bats and the St. Louis Cardinals their fists.

The Cubs and Cardinals shared first a second straight day after Chicago outslug Atlanta 12-6 and St. Louis stood off Cincinnati 7-3 Monday night.

But the amazing Cubs won the easy way with nine runs on four homers and three more on a triple.

St. Louis did it the hard way. The Cardinals were breezing behind a seven-run first inning and Bob Gibson's nine strike out, no-hit pitching until the fifth inning when the real slugger began.

The Cards' Lou Brock was hit by a pitch in the fourth and when Gibson threw his first pitch in the fifth over Tony Perez' head, words were exchanged and suddenly both benches emptied, punches were thrown and it took special police to restore order.

Dispute Over Veto Powers Breaks Out

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP) — The long-simmering dispute over veto powers between the Professional Golfers Association executive committee and the touring pros has burst into the open again.

Doug Ford, a member of the players' committee and here for the $100,000 "500" Festival Open this weekend, said Monday the problem must be solved by 5 p. m. Wednesday.

"If we don't settle it," he said, "we'll set up another organization competitive to the PGA."

The pros have said they will strike the PGA championship at Denver, Colo., July 20-23 if the matter is not solved.

"The dispute isn't as big as it's been blown up," Ford said. "I think it could be very easily resolved."

Ford's remarks followed a charge by Max Elbin, PA president, at Palm Beach Garden, Fla., that the demands of the rebellious touring pros approached extortion.

"This is anarchy, pure and simple, and the PGA obviously cannot accept such a concept," Elbin said.

The dispute over the PGA's veto power supposedly was settled in a Cleveland meeting two weeks ago.

Ford said the players' committee wants the PGA to surrender the veto only in regard to tournament operations.

"We don't want them to relinquish it over the PGA as a whole," he said. "We are not against this power. We feel that they are not educated enough in tournament affairs to use it in relation to the tournament picture."

Ford said the pros felt the Cleveland agreement provided machinery replacing the veto power of the executive committee.

"Now we find they want to keep the veto power if they don't like the advisory committee's decision," he said.

The advisory committee is composed of businessmen around the nation. Ford said the players proposed the committee be used for arbitration of disputes.

The deadline set by the players is on the eve of Thursday's start of the "500" Open at Speedway Golf Course.

Billy Casper, fresh from his playoff victory over Art Wall Jr. in the Canadian Open Monday, will defend his title in the 144-player field.

Field Completed

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. (AP) — The Firecracker 400 field was completed Monday with A.J. Foyt turning in the fastest qualifying run and Frank Warren capturing the 25-mile qualifying race.

Foyt, Indianapolis 500 winner, qualified for the $68,840 race at 177.322 miles per hour in a 1967 Ford. The Houston racer was awarded the 13th starting position in the 40-car field.

surroundings, the New York Mets beat San Francisco 5-3 and Pittsburgh topped Los Angeles 5-2 in the only other games scheduled.

In the American League, Detroit edged Cleveland 2-1, Minnesota blanked the New York Yankees 3-0, Boston halted California 9-3 and Baltimore outlasted the Chicago White Sox 1-0 in 14 innings. Washington and Kansas City were not scheduled.

The swinging in St. Louis turned into more than the usual shoving match typical of baseball fights. Gibson emerged with a jammed thumb, Cincinnati Manager Dave Bristol gashed right thigh and one policeman a reported dislocated jaw and spiked hand.

"We're not exactly in a good frame of mind," said Bristol, whose team lost its fourth straight and eighth in nine games. "When both benches go out there, something's going to happen."

When baseball continued, Deron Johnson got the first hit off Gibson and the Reds knocked him out in the eighth with three runs on Art Shamsky's homer and an error by Dal Maxvill that led to the other runs.

Maxvill had climaxed the first inning with a bases loaded two-run double and he and Julian Javier came around on the play when Rose threw wildly.

The Cubs scored six times in the first on homers by Billy Williams, Ron Santo and Randy Hundley, and when Felipe Alou and Rico Carty homered for the Braves in the inning, it tied a major league record for circuits in one frame.

Glenn Beckert hit a three-run shot in the sixth for a 9-2 lead and John Stephenson's pinch-hit three-run triple in the seventh made it 12-4 after Carty hit his second homer.

The victory was the seventh straight and 14th in 15 games for the starting Cubs, who finished last in 1966.

Ed Kranepool's three-run homer in the fourth inning erased a 3-1 deficit against the Giants and gave the Mets' Tom Seaver a 7-5 record. Seaver, clipped for three runs and six hits in three innings, stopped the Giants on one hit the rest of the way.

Tom Sisk hurled a five-hitter and Bill Mazeroski and Willie Stargell drove in five runs between them in the Pirates' triumph.

Coolidge Is Apparently Unemotional

MINNEAPOLIS - ST. PAUL (AP) — Calvin Coolidge Ermer, it is becoming apparent, is very nearly as unemotional as his namesake.

Even a daft base-running episode in which his Minnesota Twins managed to turn a single into a double play in Monday night's 3-0 victory over the New York Yankees could not shake Ermer.

Perhaps the streaking Twins' fifth straight victory kept him cool.

"Those things happen," Ermer said of the sixth-inning comedy. "We didn't let it upset us—that's a good sign. We came back two innings later and scored two runs."

The situation: Minnesota is leading the Yankees 1-0 in a strikeout-filled pitching duel between the Twins' Dave Boswell and New York's Fritz Peterson. With one out in the sixth, Peterson walks Harmon Killebrew and Tony Oliva reaches first on shortstop Ruben Amaros error.

Bob Allison lofts a pop up down the right field line, which falls barely fair. Killebrew and Oliva hold up to see if the ball is going to be caught, then, when they break for third and second, Allison is charging like an enraged bull toward second.

Killebrew halts at third and Oliva pulls up and starts to retreat to second — where Allison is standing.

After the Yankees finished whipping the ball around, and the three Twins had finished their scrambling to and fro, Killebrew had been tagged out trying to go home and Oliva had been trapped between second and third.

Passing Drills Completed Monday

ATLANTA (AP) — Both squads for the Coaches All-America Game went through prolonged passing drills Monday with quarterbacks Steve Spurrier of Florida and Bob Griese of Purdue firing for the East and Jon Brittenum of Arkansas and Bo Bruns of Houston throwing for the West.

At the close of the session, East aide Vince Dooley of Georgia seemed pleased.

"Our quarterbacks and receivers are beginning to know each other and they're looking better. There's been a slight improvement now all three days we've worked," said the Georgia coach.

West coach Bob Devaney of Nebraska was not so optimistic. "Our workout today was not as good as it's been," he said.

"I think maybe we've moved so many players to new positions to try to find depth that maybe we've just got 'em all thoroughly confused."

"I don't want to get caught short in the game because we don't have enough players for a position if someone gets hurt," he continued.

Billy Casper Pleased With Championship

MONTREAL (AP) — Billy Casper, the mildest of mild-mannered men, allowed that it was very nice to win a national championship, admitted he played well, but not his best — and even hinted he was a little pleased.

So it was left to bitterly disappointed Art Wall, beaten by four strokes by Casper's brilliant 65 — six under par and a course record — to provide the comment after their 18-hole playoff for the Canadian Open Golf Championship Monday.

"Superb," Wall said. "I played as well as I could and as hard as I could. But I never was really in it. Almost, maybe, but never really in it."

"Billy was just superb." The figures support him. In fashioning the best round of the tournament, Casper missed only two greens, had eight one-putt greens, picked off six birdies and didn't have a single bogey.

"It was one of the best putting rounds I've had in a long time," the 36-year-old Casper said. "I had a good, solid game from tee to green. When you put that together with a good putting game, you're going to score well."

But Wall, who was scrambling all the way, stayed in sight of Casper only with his putting, using only 26 in the round. But he two-putted the 10th from six feet and never really got back into contention.

"I still thought I had a chance going to the 18th tee," said Wall, a 44-year-old former Masters and Canadian Open Champ. "Then I hit that bad shot and it was really all over."

His drive was out of bounds and "I was lucky to settle for a bogey six."

"Actually, the turning point came Sunday," Art said. "It was on the 18th, when I hit that bad third shot to the green."

"You can't give a player of Billy's caliber an opening like that and not get hurt."

Casper, five strokes back with seven holes to play, caught Wall on the 72nd hole of regulation play, Billy taking a birdie and Wall a bogey.

His charge, and fine final round, was similar to his performance in the 1966 U.S. Open, when he came from seven shots back with nine holes to go, caught Arnold Palmer, then beat him in a playoff.

The victory, Casper's first of the year was worth $30,000 and the Seagram Gold Cup.

Wall settled for $18,500 after his two-under playoff round of 69 on the 6,600-yard, par 71 Montreal Municipal Course.

Twins Closing Arms Gap; Sox Hitters Falling Behind

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Minnesota Twins are closing the arms gap on Chicago's American League leaders while the White Sox' hitters fall farther behind their own pitchers.

Right-hander Dave Boswell got a last-out assist from reliever Ron Kline Monday night in pitching the Twins past the New York Yankees 3-0 for their fifth straight victory.

It was Minnesota's eighth triumph in a 10-game stretch — during which the pitching staff has accounted for three shutouts and a dazzling 1.40 earned run average.

The White Sox, meanwhile, managed just four hits in a 1-0, 14-inning loss to Baltimore. They have dropped four of their last five starts, have been blanked in their last two and now lead Minnesota, Boston and Detroit by 3 1/2 games.

The Red Sox pounded California 9-3 for their fourth straight victory while the Tigers edged Cleveland 2-1. Washington and Kansas City were idle.

In National League play, the Chicago Cubs drubbed Atlanta 12-6, St. Louis trimmed Cincinnati 7-3, Pittsburgh downed Los Angeles 5-2 and the New York Mets defeated San Francisco 5-3. Philadelphia and Houston were not scheduled.

Cards Stay In Deadlock For Top Spot

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The St. Louis Cardinals stayed in a first-place deadlock for first place with the Chicago Cubs by drubbing Cincinnati 7-3 while the Kansas City Athletics took Monday night off in preparation for a holiday double-header today against the Washington Senators.

St. Louis slated its game away with all seven runs in the first inning. The big blow was Dal Maxvill's, which came with the bases loaded. The Cubs defeated Atlanta 12-6.

Maxvill doubled off reliever Don Nottebart after the Cards had belted Reds starter Milt Pappas for the first three runs.

Bob Gibson won his 10th victory against six losses, setting down the first 13 Cincinnati batters, nine on strikes. One of his pitches sailed over the head of Tony Perez in the fifth inning and emptied both benches in a free-for-all that took police 11 minutes to control. Bob Lee of the Reds was ejected from the game.

Lou Brock of the Cardinals had been hit by a pitch the inning before the donnybrook.

Art Shamsky homered and an error by Maxvill allowed the other two Cincinnati runs all in the eighth inning.

Cincinnati is at St. Louis again tonight, with Gary Nolan (6-2) going for the Reds against the Cards' Danny Jaster (5-3).

Washington at Kansas City will pitch Bob Proby (1-4) and Phil Ortega (5-5) at Lew Krausse (4-10) and Jim Nash (8-7) in a battle to get out of the American League cellar.

WIMBLEDON, England (AP)

— For the first time since World War II, three European tennis players are in the semifinals of the All-England Championships.

Coming on top of last year's Wimbledon triumph by Manuel Santana of Spain, it's evident that European tennis is on the way up.

Wilhelm Bungert of West Germany, Roger Taylor of Britain and Nicola Pilic of Yugoslavia all won their quarter-finals matches Monday and stormed into the round of four.

Bungert and Taylor have to play each other in Wednesday's semifinals. Pilic faces Australia's John Newcombe, the only seeded player still surviving and now the favorite for Santana's title.

Bungert, who has reached the Wimbledon semifinals twice before was a stylish 6-4, 4-6, 4-6, 6-1, 6-3 victor over Thomas Koch, the Brazilian left-hander.

The German is the only player of the four who has appeared in the semifinals previously.

Taylor, the hope of the crowds that have packed the stands for the past week, bot home 6-4, 8-6, 6-4 against Ray Ruffels of Australia.

Pilic downed Australia's John Cooper 14-12, 8-10, 6-4, 6-2. Newcombe defeated fellow-Australian Ken Fletcher 6-4, 6-2, 6-4.

Britain has not had a semifinalist since 1961. Yugoslavia has never had one before.

Mrs. Billie-Jean King, of Long Beach, Calif., seeking to retain her women's title, faced a tough quarter-final battle today against Virginia Wade, British Wightman Cup star.

Another scheduled American-British clash was between Mary Ann Eisel, of St. Louis, and Mrs. Ann Jones, the British No. 1.

American girls were engaged in the two other quarter-finals. Rosemary Casals of San Francisco faced Judy Tegart of Australia, and Kathy Harter of Seal Beach, Calif., had a tough date with Australia's Lesley Turner.

a shutout," said Boswell, who started the Twins' winning streak with a 3-2, four-hit victory over Boston last Wednesday. "You've got to be a team guy, and that's what we've got on this staff."

In the past 20 games, Boswell, Dean Chance, Jim Kaat and Jim Merritt each has won twice while yielding a combined total of 14 runs.

"The way they've pitched the past two weeks, I'd have to say our pitchers compare very favorably with the White Sox," said Twins pilot Cal Ermer. "Pitching with that consistency is very unusual — even though we figure we've got pretty good pitching."

The White Sox, who have scored only eight runs in their last five games, wasted the efforts of 20 players — including six pitchers — in bowing to the Orioles in overtime.

Moe Drabowsky, unbeaten since he joined the Orioles last season, blanked the Sox on one hit over the last five innings for his sixth 1967 victory. Brooks Robinson's sacrifice fly in the 11th scored the game's only run after singles by Luis Aparicio and Paul Blair plus an error by left fielder Tommie Agee.

The Red Sox rode home runs by Tony Conigliaro, who has slammed 10 in his last 22 games, Mike Andrews and Reggie Smith to their romp over the Angels.

Lee Stange went the distance for Boston, yielding seven hits — including a homer by Schaal — en route to his third victory against five setbacks.

Meredith Near End Of Walk

CANTON, Miss. (AP) — After 10 days and 158 relatively uneventful miles, civil rights figure James H. Meredith reached the final stretch of his Mississippi "walk against fear" today.

The goal: the courthouse in Canton, a city of 9,700 and scene of several civil rights flareups in past years.

Meredith, 34, said he would be glad when the symbolic walk is over because "I just can't stand to see my people so afraid."

He has been bothered on the march by sore and blistered feet.

The New York law student and 15 followers stopped their walk about seven miles short of Canton Monday at dusk and scattered to various nearby homes to spend the night.

All along U.S. 51, Meredith has urged Negroes to "learn to live with dignity and refuse to knuckle under to white supremacy." In small towns, he usually made a stop to speak at a church.

Two Negro deacons, backed by the white town marshal, temporarily barred Meredith from Lee's Chapel Methodist church Monday at Pickens, 20 miles north of Canton.

However, the deacons were overruled a few minutes later by the chief steward, J. H. Hoover.

"Ain't no harm in it," said Hoover. "He's walked all these miles to help us."

Standing at the pulpit afterward, Meredith told the crowded church that the incident illustrated the fear many Mississippi Negroes have of opposing whites.

"I knew you were afraid when I hit town and your young men wouldn't wave back at me with white folks looking at them," he said.

"When I got to the church, I was sitting right here, busy trying to attend to my feet, and I looked up and those colored folks and white folks were standing there with a gun on their hip."

The audience listened silently. Some turned to look at Marshal Henry Slayton, who sat in a rear corner of the white frame church, a revolver strapped to his waist in a worn leather holster.

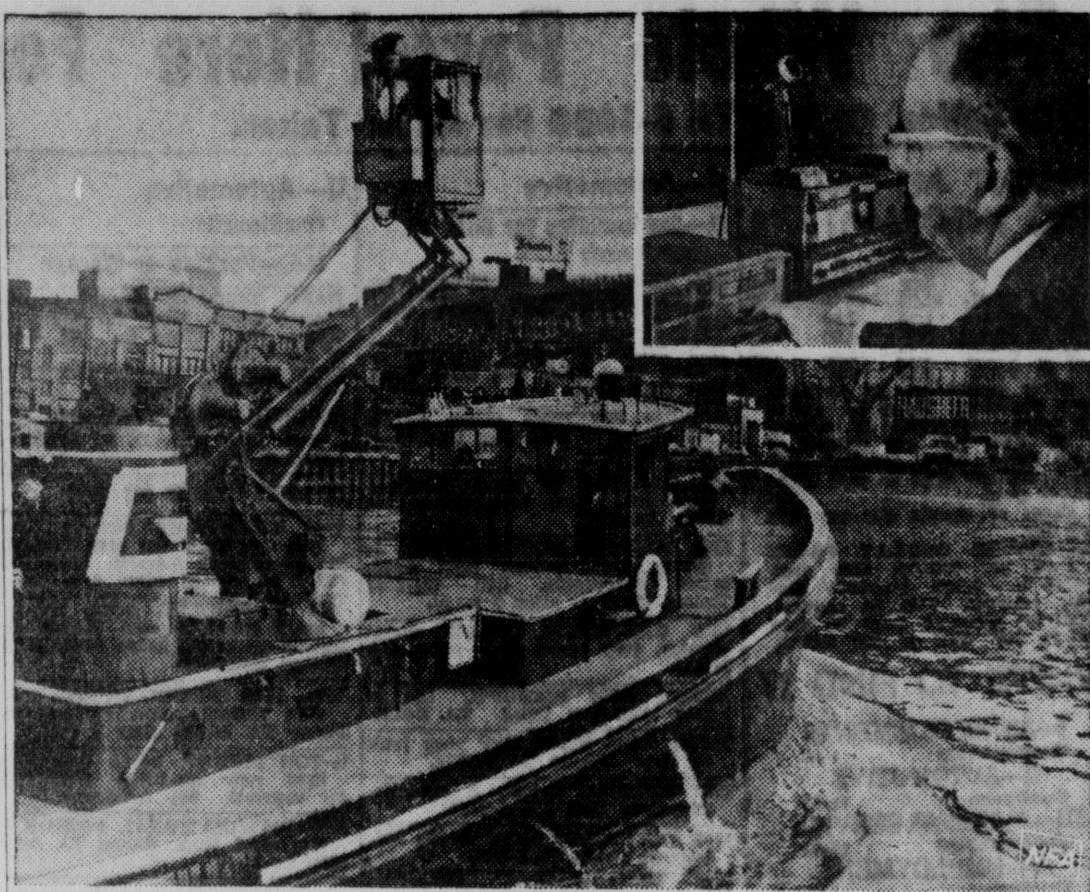

"Well, here I am, and every-body in Pickens now knows that you don't always win because you have white folks with you," added Meredith.

"And within a very short time, some Negro is going to beat that nigger who went and got these white folks here."

The marshal said the deacons called him to the church and "I went down there to keep them from having a racket. Actually, I don't give a damn."

When Meredith started walking June 24 near Hernando, Miss., he planned to push on to Jackson, the state capital 25 miles south of Canton.

However, Meredith decided that Canton was far enough, since he rejoined last year's Mississippi march at Canton after recuperating from wounds received from shotgun blasts near Hernando.

TELEPHONES FOR TUGS on Lake Erie put them in a class with today's taxis by getting them to the scene fast, when they are needed. A traffic control center, shown in the inset, in Cleveland's Terminal Tower can direct and control activity of the 28 tugs of the Great Lakes Towing Company at all 12 ports in Lake Erie, ordering them directly and quickly to pick up a tow. The lift pictured on the tug above is not necessary to the communications system, although it represents another tugboat innovation which gives the captain a better vantage point during operations.

Fight Starts When Perez Flies Out

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Everybody agreed it wasn't the normal pushing and shoving match ballplayers like to call a fight.

Both the Cincinnati Reds' and the St. Louis Cardinals' benches and bullpens emptied in the fifth inning of the Cardinals' 7-3 victory Monday night.

The fight started when pitcher Bob Gibson and the Reds' Tony Perez exchanged words after Perez flew out. The players massed around the mound and suddenly fists were flying.

"I got between Gibson and Perez," said Orlando Cepeda, who traded blows with second baseman Pete Rose, "and tried to separate them. People always talk about Latinos fighting, and I didn't want anything like that here."

Cepeda said everything was under control until Cincinnati pitcher Bob Lee ran from the bullpen into the pack. "Lee came in, calling me and Gibson all sorts of names," Orlando said. "We didn't want to fight. That's for the birds."

Julian Javier went down on a close pitch by Don Nottebart in the third inning. In the fourth inning, Lou Brock was hit on the leg by a pitch. With Perez up in the fifth, Gibson sailed a pitch over Perez's head at the back-stop.

"I don't think he was trying to hit me," Perez said, "but he might have thought he had to protect his team after Brock got hit. We started talking as I went back toward the dugout, but it was nothing serious.

"When we were on the mound," Perez continued, "Cepeda tried to prevent a fight. He told me in Spanish to take it easy. The fight started when Lee ran out. He thought Cepeda was holding me."

Lee was the only man thrown out of the game as the result of the fracas

No Thought Of Being In First Place

ATLANTA (AP) — The way Leo Durocher told it, he "hasn't even thought" about being in first place.

"I'll tell you how we'll finish on Oct. 1," he said.

Durocher, whose amazing Cubs currently share the National League lead with St. Louis, generally is known as an outspoken man. But he had little comment Monday night as his Cinderella club downed Atlanta 12-6 in a home run barrage which tied a league record.

Ironically, the Cub manager picked that particular moment to praise his club for great defense.

"This team has hustled since the bell rang," he said.

He paused a moment. Then he added, "Of course, I could use three or four more like Ron Santo or Billy Williams or Fergie Jenkins."

The remarks seemed appropriate. Both Santo and Williams blasted first inning homers as the Cubs romped to their 14th victory in their last 15 games. Another round-tripper — this by Randy Hundley — brought home six Chicago runs in the big first frame.

Felipe Alou and Rico Carty homered for the Braves in the bottom of the first, enabling the two clubs to tie the major league mark of five homers by two teams in one inning.

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING ON REZONING APPLICATION

Whereas, The Zoning and Planning Commission and the City Council of Sedalia, Missouri, have received application from Morris McCowen, Doyle McCowen, Melvin McCowen, Jr., Emogene McCowen, Wallace McCowen and Shirley McCowen, owners requesting changes in Zoning as follows:

1. All that part of the following described real estate, not now zoned M-2, as shown by the zoning map of the City, be rezoned from R-1 to Zone M-1:

Beginning at a point Thirty (30) feet South of the South West corner of Lot number Twelve (12) of Ritchey's Second Addition to the City of Sedalia, Missouri, running thence in a Westerly direction parallel with the North line of Cooper Street, if extended Westerly in the direction it now runs, to Addition of the Right of Way of the Lexington Branch of the Missouri Pacific Railroad, thence in a Northwesterly direction along the East line of said Railroad Right of Way to the North line of Lot number Seven (7) to a point Fifty Eight (58) feet in a Westerly direction from the West line of said Cooper Street, thence South to the North West corner of Lot number One (1) in said Block number Twelve (12), thence South to the South East corner of Lot number Two (2) in said Block number Twelve (12), thence in a Westerly direction to the South West corner of said Block number Twelve (12), thence South to the place of beginning.

Being a part of the South West quarter of Section number Thirty Three (33), in Township number Twenty One (21) West of the Fifth Principal Meridian, in the County of Pettis and State of Missouri.

2. All that part of the following described real estate now zoned R-3, as shown by the zoning map of the City, be rezoned from R-3 to Zone M-1:

Beginning at a point where the South line of Cooper Street if extended West in the direction it now runs intersects the East line of the right-of-way of the Lexington Branch of the Missouri Pacific Railroad, thence East along the South line of Cooper Street to the West line of Park Avenue, One Hundred Twenty-Five (125) feet, thence South to the South line of said right-of-way of the Lexington Branch of the Missouri Pacific Railroad, thence in a Northwesterly direction along the East line of the right-of-way of the Lexington Branch of the Missouri Pacific Railroad, to the point of beginning, all the above described land in the County of Pettis and State of Missouri, being the SW 1/4 of Section number Thirty-Three (33), Township number Forty Six (46), North of Range number Twenty One (21) West.

3. All that part of the following described real estate now zoned R-3, as shown by the zoning map of the City, be rezoned from R-3 to Zone M-1:

Beginning at a point in the West line of Park Avenue One Hundred Twenty-Five (125) feet South of the South line of Cooper Street, if extended Westerly, in the City of Sedalia, Missouri, thence in a Westerly direction parallel with the South line of said Cooper Street, if extended, to the Right of Way of the Lexington Branch of the Missouri Pacific Railroad, thence in a Southeasterly direction along said Right of Way to a line parallel with and One Hundred Eighty Seven and one half (187 1/2) feet South of the South line of said Cooper Street, if extended, thence in an Easterly direction parallel with the South line of said Cooper Street to the West line of said Park Avenue, thence North along the West line of said Park Avenue Sixty Two and one half (62 1/2) feet to the place of beginning.

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Pennsylvania State House was what they called it on July 4, 1776, when the British colonists' Declaration of Independence was read for the first time.

Today it is called Independence Hall and internationally known contralto Marian Anderson is to read the manifesto of liberty.

But Philadelphia can be called only the sentimental focal point of the nation's observance of its 191st birthday. In each of the 50 states, citizens are observing the holiday in their own ways—from family outings to statewide bell ringings.

In Delaware, Gov. Charles L. Terry has proclaimed that all bells in the state should ring in celebration at 2 p.m.

In Richmond, Va., bells were scheduled to peal for four minutes at noon at historic St. John's church. Other city bells are being rung, too, recalling the sounding of the Liberty Bell in Philadelphia.

Probably the most popular way to observe the occasion is as a holiday away from work. Families crowded highways, headed for picnics or for beaches and lakes, with an accompanying rise in traffic fatalities.

But as they drove and as others paraded down main streets around the country, they were reminded by President Johnson of the nearly half million Americans in Vietnam who had no time to celebrate.

"As fireworks flash in our skies," the President said in an Independence Day statement, "let us remember the cannons flaming across the seas."

The President made his remarks from LBJ Ranch in Texas where he is spending the holiday with Mrs. Johnson; his daughters, Lynda and Luci; his son-in-law, Patrick J. Nugent, and his first grandchild, Patrick Lyndon Nugent.

In Detroit, Americans have invited Canadians to celebrate with them. The International Freedom Festival commemorates July 4th and Canada's Dominion Day, which actually was last Saturday.

Jefferson County, Alabama, is honoring 615 of the nation's war dead with flags—many of which draped their caskets—on 12 "Avenues of Flags."

Also on hand for the session with the photographers were Lyn's parents, Luci Johnson

In Delaware, Gov. Charles L. Terry has proclaimed that all bells in the state should ring in celebration at 2 p.m.

In Richmond, Va., bells were scheduled to peal for four minutes at noon at historic St. John's church. Other city bells are being rung, too, recalling the sounding of the Liberty Bell in Philadelphia.

Probably the most popular way to observe the occasion is as a holiday away from work. Families crowded highways, headed for picnics or for beaches and lakes, with an accompanying rise in traffic fatalities.

But as they drove and as others paraded down main streets around the country, they were reminded by President Johnson of the nearly half million Americans in Vietnam who had no time to celebrate.

"As fireworks flash in our skies," the President said in an Independence Day statement, "let us remember the cannons flaming across the seas."

The President made his remarks from LBJ Ranch in Texas where he is spending the holiday with Mrs. Johnson; his daughters, Lynda and Luci; his son-in-law, Patrick J. Nugent, and his first grandchild, Patrick Lyndon Nugent.

In Detroit, Americans have invited Canadians to celebrate with them. The International Freedom Festival commemorates July 4th and Canada's Dominion Day, which actually was last Saturday.

Independence Day

"... That all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their creator with certain unalienable rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the Pursuit of Happiness"

On July 4, 1776, at Independence Hall, Philadelphia, American freedom was born, with the adoption of the Declaration of Independence. For the 56 patriotic men who signed this document, their act was both an affirmation of belief and an expression of great courage. In signing, they Truly pledged "their lives, their fortunes and their sacred honor." To the vision and determination of these men and others like them, we owe our progress and achievements as a nation, and our American way of life.

As we observe Independence Day, we may fittingly celebrate with festivity, for it is indeed a day to be happy. But along with the picnics, the trips and all the carefree pleasures of the Fourth of July, let us remember that, above all this is a day to commemorate with prayer and thanksgiving, for our God-given rights and for our forefathers' steadfastness in upholding those rights. Let us affirm our faith in the principles and process of personal liberty, and let us pledge to be ever resolute in the cause of freedom.
